About The Feldt-Barbanell Scholarship for Feminist Leadership

This award continues the legacy and commitment of activist Gloria Feldt and her husband retired insurance executive Alex Barbanell to the Women and Gender Studies program at ASU. Feldt’s passion for bettering women’s lives remains her driving force as an independent commentator on women’s issues, politics, media, and leadership. Feldt’s books include Send Yourself Roses, co-authored with actress Kathleen Turner, Behind Every Choice Is a Story, The War on Choice, and No Excuses: 9 Ways Women Can Change How We Think About Power. Alex Barbanell earned his BA in history from ASU in 1982 and was recognized by the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences with the Distinguished Achievement Award in 1987 for his contributions to the advancement and development of the college. He was given the 1994 Alumni Service Award for exemplary service to ASU. He is the past president of ASU College of Liberal Arts and Sciences Alumni Association and a founding member of the College of Liberal Arts and Science’s original Dean’s Council.
