About the Norton Women and Gender Studies Undergraduate Research Scholarship

Rev. Jenny Norton created the Norton Women and Gender Studies Undergraduate Research Scholarship to support undergraduate students who will do research on the challenges faced by gay, lesbian, bi-sexual or transgender communities in our society. Norton is a minister for the Arizona Department of Corrections. In her work and life, she has assisted people struggling to be accepted by society. Individuals who identify themselves as gay, lesbian, bi-sexual or transgender often face rejection and hardship. Rev. Norton grew up in a very inclusive community in New York and has always been active in the gay community.
