About the Susan M. Schmidt Memorial Award for Outstanding Undergraduate Achievement

The Susan M. Schmidt Memorial Award for Outstanding Undergraduate Achievement was established in 1985 in memory of an outstanding undergraduate student. Susan was in her third semester at ASU, attending night classes and working as a youth counselor for the Neighborhood Youth Corps in Glendale. Susan was the victim of violence, killed by an unknown assailant in March 1978 as she was returning home from a trip to the Valley West Shopping Mall. Her case remains unsolved today. Susan’s parents, Ernest and Ruth Schmidt, and her brother Jeff are vigilant in remembering their loved one and are pleased that the legacy of Susan’s scholarship will continue at Arizona State University.
